

Structuring and Preserving Information

Services and products at a glance

Information is your long-term capital. That is why it deserves to be handled with care. docuteam arranges your information management: from the creation of documents to their long-term archiving. And we ensure that your archive remains accessible in the long term with specific IT solutions and practical work.

Information Management Consulting

Structuring and making information available – so it becomes your organization's memory.

Data Intelligence

We systematically convert data into usable information – as a basis for decision-making, knowledge building and sustainable preservation.

Archives management

Appraising and Cataloguing your records, Support for archiving (outsourcing).

Digitization of business records and archives

From the digital reproduction of cultural assets to the digitisation of entire archives, also in combination with our other services.

Digital archiving

We manage your digital archive. You provide the data, docuteam does the rest.

Software for Archives

Our modular software solutions cover all aspects of archiving in accordance with the OAIS reference model.